

Date: Saturday, December 3rd and 10th from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Tuition: $200 (includes materials)

Intro to Blacksmithing for Women

Beginner Blacksmithing 101-Learn the basics of blacksmithing and create a small project to bring home with you!

Topics covered:

Shop Safety and Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

Basic hammer skills

Measuring, marking and cutting rough stock

Coal and Propane Forge use

Turning round stock into square stock

Tapering, twisting and scrolling

Punching and upsetting

Applying boiled linseed oil finish

Instructor: Ian Blackmer, RBCTC Diversified Agriculture teacher

For more information or to register, please visit <https://www.rbctc.org/adult-education>

Minimum Enrollment: If fewer than 4 students register, the course will be cancelled.